

BETH A McKEOWN
CURRICULUM VITAE

Education	BFA, Interior Design , Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York, 2000
Certifications and Licensures	State of Florida Interior Designer – ID5260 State of Florida Interior Design Business - IB26001357 NCIDQ Certificate Number 22229 DBE (Disadvantaged Business Enterprise) – NAICS Code: 541410 Interior Design NAICS Code: 541420 Industrial Design State of Florida MWBE Certificate
Current Professional Experience	Econeering LLC. 2010 to present Director of Operations , Licensed and insured Interior Designer in the state of Florida with more than 4 million SF of projects that includes educational, commercial, municipal and aviation designs. Responsible for the interior design on LEED® certified projects ranging from basic certification to LEED® Gold Certification. Knowledgeable and experienced in all phases of the interior design process and works closely with the client to create custom interiors while incorporating sustainable design strategies into every project. Services include: programming, space planning, schematic design, design development, product selection and specifications, production of presentation materials, development of construction documents and construction administration.
Previous Experience	Schenkel Shultz Architects 2002 to 2011 Associate , Developed interior designs for various projects working with architects to assemble details and construction documents. Met with owners to establish color selections and finishes to incorporate into an overall interior design package. Services included: space planning, schematic design, design development, construction documents with finish plans, interior elevations, millwork details and color boards with finish schedules.
Awards	Florida Educational Facilities Planners' Association – Architectural Showcase Palm Spring Community Middle School – 1 st Place 2007 Treasure Coast High School – 1 st Place 2007 Storm Grove Middle School – 1 st Place 2010 Weeki Wachee High School – 1 st Place 2012